INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

WHO IS CONCRETE MASONRY ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA?

Concrete Masonry Association of Australia (CMAA) represents the concrete masonry manufacturers of Australia.

CMAA publishes technical manuals, data sheets and software packages relating to concrete block walling, concrete paving, permeable paving and concrete masonry retaining walls, which are free to download from the CMAA website. CMAA also conducts workshops and courses, and provides a technical advisory service for the construction industry and other uses of concrete masonry products.

CMAA supports the concrete masonry industry by providing information and advice to architects, engineers, specifiers and educators. Published information includes technical manuals, data sheets and software packages relating to concrete block walling, permeable paving and concrete masonry retaining walls, which is available free to download from the CMAA website. CMAA also conducts workshops and courses, and provides a technical advisory service for masonry design queries.

WHO IS THINK BRICK AUSTRALIA?

Think Brick Australia represents Australia's clay brick and paver manufacturers. The purpose of Think Brick is to ensure clay brick is recognised as a pre-eminent building material by leading architects, developers, builders and property owners. Think Brick is committed to promoting exemplary building and landscape design using clay brick and pavers.

Think Brick creates national campaigns to inspire designers, builders and consumers to use clay brick as a contemporary, versatile and inspiring building material.

Think Brick provides technical support to architects, engineers, builders, developers and property owners.

Think Brick undertakes research to improve and promote the usability and environmental credentials of our products and work with government and regulators closely. Think Brick also sets and monitors standards for our members and users of our products.

Think Brick provides resources for the industry and assist with the development of training initiatives for associated trades.

AWARD INTRODUCTION

COMPETITION OVERVIEW

Bruce Mackenzie Landscape Award was previously part of the Horbury Hunt Award. In 2013, this award evolved to include concrete masonry. The award was named in 2014 after renowned Australian landscape architect Bruce Mackenzie.

Bruce Mackenzie was responsible for some of Australia's greatest landscaping projects, which include Ku-ring-gai and Glebe Bicentennial Parks, and the landscape construction of Sydney (Kingsford-Smith) International Airport.

With a career spanning over five decades, Bruce Mackenzie has been commissioned to design numerous recognised Australian landmarks and has won various design awards, which highlights his great contribution to the landscape design community.

BRUCE MACKENZIE LANDSCAPE AWARD ENTRY CRITERIA

GENERAL

Nominated projects must meet the following criteria:

- Includes non-building projects that have enhanced the quality of the built environment or public domain and incorporates clay brick/pavers and concrete pavers.
- Projects must have been completed since January 2021 and located in Australia or, if internationally located, built with Australian-manufactured masonry products.
- Materials used can include clay brick, concrete pavers (including wetcast*) and masonry used in landscape or outdoor urban design.
- Recycled and reused bricks can be used in this category.
- Projects must not have been entered into previous Think Brick Awards.
- Projects must exemplify architectural innovation, the collaboration between project team, and show a high level of skill and craftsmanship.
- Entries must be submitted by the closing date of Friday 31st March 2023.
- Only entries that are submitted in full and online through the Think Brick website will be accepted.
- A project may be entered in multiple categories, providing that project meets the criteria of the specific category as outlined below. Each project may only be entered once in the same Landscape category.

* Wetcast concrete paving units are manufactured using concrete greater than zero slump. The concrete mix is poured into a mould where it is required to cure and harden before being demoulded and palletised.

LANDSCAPE CATEGORY

The Landscape category includes non-building projects that have enhanced the quality of the built environment or public domain and incorporates clay brick/pavers and concrete pavers.

PRIZE

The prize is a trophy and certificate for the winning project. The winning architect will also receive $5,000 for the project.

NEW ENTRANT AWARD

This award is open to any architectural or design firm that has not previously entered any category in the Think Brick Awards. All first-time entrants that enter one of the existing categories will automatically go in the running to win the New Entrant Award. The winner will receive $5,000 in prize money.

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

The finalists and winners of the Bruce Mackenzie Landscape category 2023 will be announced and presented at the Awards Gala Dinner, which will be held on a yet-to-be announced date in 2023.

The Awards Gala Dinner incorporates the Horbury Hunt Residential, Horbury Hunt Commercial, Kevin Borland Masonry, Bruce Mackenzie Landscape, and Robin Dods Roof Tile Excellence categories.

POST-COMPETITION PROMOTION

The projects will be featured on the Think Brick Australia, Concrete Masonry Association of Australia (CMAA) and Australian Roofing Tile Association (ARTA) websites, social media, publications, industry presentations, roadshows and events.

MEDIA DEMANDS

Participants should be prepared to make themselves available for all media and publicity requests on their submitted projects, including but not limited to phone, email or face-to-face interviews for broadcast, online, social media or print publication.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Photographs submitted as part of this nomination may be exhibited, published and used in a variety of marketing activities and platforms in the promotion of the Awards and other related initiatives. Photographs may also be used as a case study on the Think Brick Australia, CMAA and ARTA websites, social media channels and other third party media.

The winning project and any projects receiving commendations will also be published in Think Brick Australia, CMAA and ARTA's publications.

Architects from any winning projects and any receiving commendations will be expected to participate in future member engagements.

Submissions should include the necessary photography credits. Think Brick Australia, CMAA and ARTA cannot be held responsible for publication of photos with no credit if this is not provided. Photography credits will be provided wherever possible.

Late material will not be accepted.

Submission of an entry implies consent of all members of the project team to enter this competition. The jury's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding that decision.

All building products used in the submitted entries must comply with the Building Code of Australia and relevant Australian standards as mandated by legislation. If necessary, participants will be asked to demonstrate proof of compliance.

Think Brick Australia, CMAA and ARTA respect privacy and will not share contact information with any third party.

ASSESSMENT

JURY

A jury consisting of eminent architects and industry professionals will be appointed by Think Brick Australia to judge the submissions and announce a winner. The 2023 jury will be announced on the Think Brick Australia website.

Each juror will be required to acknowledge personal or professional connections with any of the participants or their employees. In the case of such conflicts, the Competition Advisor will oversee a transparent process whereby these conflicts are alleviated. At the discretion of the Competition Advisor, jurors may be asked to take no part in the assessment of affected entries. A photographer will also be present during the judging to document the event.

SUBMISSION
